Other temporary changes in the region
Temporary HOV lanes will operate on several major highways from June 29 – August 18, 2015, including the QEW.

What should I do?

Plan ahead! Now is the right time to start thinking about how you'll get around during the Games. Here are some suggestions:

Residents and Commuters

- Consider using the Hamilton Street Railway or GO Transit instead of driving.
- Walk or cycle for short distance trips.
- When possible, travel in the morning to avoid Games-related traffic later in the day. Carpool to take advantage of temporary HOV lanes. Use the Smart Commute Tool to match trips (carpool and more).

Businesses

- Adjust delivery schedules outside of busiest times to avoid delays.
- Develop a Games Travel Plan that encourages your staff to rethink the way they travel, e.g. carpooling.
- Notify your staff, customers and visitors about changes that may affect them.
- Visit ontario.ca/games2015 to download a business guide and sign up for email updates to get the latest information.
- Sign up for Smart Commute's special Games Service that will help your business plan ahead.
- Learn more about TORONTO 2015 sponsorship opportunities.
- Register your business for supplier opportunities with the Games.

Spectators

- Take transit to and from the event (it's included with your ticket!)
- Enhanced transit will be available to/from Toronto before and after every match
- There is limited parking in the area but there will be park-and-ride service. Book your space at toronto2015.org.
- If you are close enough, try walking or cycling to your event. Bicycle parking will be available and the routes leading up venues will be pedestrian friendly.
- Begin planning your journey to the CIBC Hamilton Pan Am Soccer Stadium (HAM).
- Find out more about soccer (football).
