- The Tennis Centre will not be used during the Pan Am Games but both venues host events during the Parapan Am Games, from August 8 – 14.

Temporary transit changes

- Some TTC services will not serve the U of T Scarborough Loop during the Games. Check TTC.ca before you travel for details.

Other temporary changes in the region

- Temporary HOV lanes will operate on several major routes from June 29 – August 18, including stretches of Highway 401, Highway 404, the DVP, Highway 427, the Gardiner Expressway, the QEW, Lakeshore Blvd. and Jane St. (north of Steeles Ave. W).

WHAT SHOULD I DO?

Plan ahead! Now is the right time to start thinking about how you'll get around during the Games. Here are some suggestions:

Residents and Commuters

- Take transit instead of driving.
- When possible, schedule travel to avoid Games-related traffic. Carpool to take advantage of temporary HOV lanes. Use the Smart Commute Tool to match trips (carpool and more).
- Walk or cycle for short distance trips.

Businesses

- Adjust delivery schedules outside of busiest times when possible to avoid delays.
- Develop a Games Travel Plan that encourages your staff to rethink the way they travel, e.g. carpooling.
- Notify your staff, customers and visitors about changes that may affect them.
- Visit ontario.ca/games2015 to download a business guide and sign up for email updates to get the latest information.
- Sign up for Smart Commute's special Games Service that will help your business plan ahead.
- Learn more about TORONTO 2015 sponsorship opportunities.
- Register your business for supplier opportunities with the Games.

Spectators

- Limited parking will be available in the university's lots 4 and 5
    - Limited, pre-booked accessible parking will be available in the CIBC Pan Am/Parapan Am Aquatics Centre and Field House's south lot.
- Transit is the best option for accessing the venues, and it's included with your ticket!
- If you are close enough, try walking to the event. The routes leading up to this venue will be pedestrian friendly and bicycle parking will be available.

- Visit the TORONTO 2015 website to begin planning your journey to the CIBC Pan Am/Parapan Am Aquatics Centre and Field House (PAC) and University of Toronto Scarborough Tennis Centre (UTS). More information about spectator planning tools will be available in spring 2015.
- Find out more about events taking place at PAC and UTS:
