Other temporary changes in the region

- Temporary HOV lanes will operate on several major routes from June 29 – August 18, including Highway 404, the DVP and stretches of Highway 401, Highway 427, the Gardiner Expressway, the QEW, Lakeshore Blvd. and Jane St. (north of Steeles Ave. W.)

WHAT SHOULD I DO?

Plan ahead! Now is the right time to start thinking about how you'll get around during the Games. Here are some suggestions:

Residents and Commuters

- Take GO Transit, TTC, Brampton Transit and YRT/Viva instead of driving.
- Walk or cycle for short distance trips.
- When possible, schedule travel to avoid Games-related traffic. Carpool to take advantage of temporary HOV lanes. Use the Smart Commute Tool to match trips (carpool and more).

Businesses

- Adjust delivery schedules outside of busiest times to avoid delays.
- Develop a Games Travel Plan that encourages your staff to rethink the way they travel, e.g. carpooling.
- Notify your staff, customers and visitors about changes that may affect them.
- Visit ontario.ca/games2015 to download a business guide and sign up for email updates to get the latest information.
- Sign up for Smart Commute's special Games Service that will help your business plan ahead.
- Learn more about TORONTO 2015 sponsorship opportunities.
- Register your business for supplier opportunities with the Games.

Spectators

- There will be limited parking at the campus Shoreham and Founders Road West parking lots. Pre-booked accessible parking will also be available.
- Take transit to and from the event (it's included with your ticket!). The designated transit stop will be at the York University Common, a short walk to the stadium and about 800 metres from the Tennis Centre.
- If you are close enough, try walking to the event. The routes leading up to this venue will be pedestrian friendly and bicycle parking will be available.
- Visit the TORONTO 2015 website to begin planning your journey to the CIBC Pan Am/Parapan Am Athletics Stadium \(YOR\) and Canadian Tennis Centre \(CTC\). More information about spectator planning tools will be available in spring 2015.
